

Tompkins-Emeneger Vows Read in Catholic Rites

In a mid-afternoon ceremony at the Nativity Catholic Church on Sunday, June 24, Miss Mary Loucille Tompkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tompkins, 904 Fay-smith Ave. exchanged her marriage promises with Barry Daniel Emeneger. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. Emeneger, 1723 Elm Ave., Torrance.

Mrs. Mary Butterfield, organist, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Donna Stark who sang the "Panis Angelicus."

The Rev. C. Appling officiated at the marriage.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father.

She was gowned in white silk organza fashioned with a fitted bodice re-embroidered with Alencon lace. The full skirt fell into a court train. A pearl studded crown held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Patsy Cochran was the maid of honor. She wore a turquoise sheath and carried turquoise carnations. Bridesmaids were Misses Linda Tompkins, Sue Foster, Linda Landcaster and Kris Reed. All wore yellow sheaths and carried yellow carnations. Jennifer Tompkins, wearing a floor length turquoise gown, was the flower girl. Bob Emeneger stood as best man and ushers were John Holmstead, Mark Molulten, Frank Uribe and Bill Mosley.

Approximately 100 guests greeted the newlyweds at a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Judy Emeneger was in charge of the guest book.

After a week's honeymoon in Monterey the couple will be at home in Lomita. Both Mr. and Mrs. Emeneger are graduates of Torrance High school.
